AT A MEETING of the Republican Committee of Crawford county, held on Saturday last, delegates were selected to the State and Senatorial Conventions, and instructed to support Gen. Grant for President and Galusha A. Grow for Vice President.

ANOTHER Fenian demonstration has been made in Cork, the members of the order coming in contact with the police authorities endeavoring to rescue a prisoner. The British Government has a large contract on hand in dealing with this powerful and mischievous organization.

FOR RELAXATION BISMARCK has recieved leave of absence, and will endeavor to recruit his health by several months of travel in the countries of Europe. If he could be prevailed upon to cross the ocean, he would receive in this country a welcome befitting his name and fame.

MEXICO, the mother of revolutionists, is again threatened with civil war, if indeed she has over enjoyed immunity from internal strife. The news by the Havana cable, this morning, portends a serious conflict between the government and dissatisfied factions. Society is fearfully demoralized there, crime holding high carnival in all sections of the country.

BY A RECENT DECISION of the Supreme Court, in session at Philadelphia, Mrs. JANE G. SWISSHELM, of this city, recovers real estate to the value of some $60,000, which had been illegally transferred by her husband from whom she was divorced. Mrs. S. has battled this case for some time past, and her many friends will be pleased to note the final decision in her favor.

THE CANADIANS are taking alarm at the reorganization of the Fenian brotherhood in this country, and, in view of possible contingencies, a force of regulars will be stationed along the Niagara coast as soon as navigation is resumed. This piece of prudence may be very well, but as we take it there need be no alarm felt by our cousins across the border, as the leaders of the Fenians have lost all faith in schemes for the invasion of Canada, and in the future will confine their operations to the soil of Ireland.

A New Masonic Temple.

Philadelphia rejoices now in the possession of one of the finest Masonic Temples in America, but the members of that order have in contemplation the erection of a new edifice which will completely overshadow the present one in point of elegance and grandeur. On next St. John's Day the corner stone will be laid on the site selected, Broad and Filbert streets, and the temple will be completed five years from that date, at a cost of $750,000.

The new hall will be of granite, and in the Norman style; the massive character of this order of architecture, however, being well relieved by the arrangement of the buttresses, balconies, balustrades and graceful pinnacles which form part of the design. The four sides of the building will be of granite, the only difference in the design being in the front on Broad street, which will present one of the most magnificent features of this thoroughfare. The building will be three stories in height. The front on Broad street will present two towers, one at each corner, the intervening space being composed of a handsome portico, running to the second story, and above which will be two inches for statues (one of Silence,) the whole surmounted at the apex of the roof with a small tower, at the summit of which will be a statue of Charity. On the face of this main front, in addition to the ornamental windows, will be (in relief) emblems of the Order—the square and compass, &c.

"The tower at the southwest corner of the building will be the great feature. It will be three hundred feet from the ground to the top of the spire, or one hundred and four feet higher than Christ Church steeple. The four corners of this tower will be surmounted by pinnacles, while the buttresses extending up a considerable distance, the balconies at the windows, and the balustrades and general ornamentation of this portion of the structure will add greatly to the beauty of the whole design. The remaining three sides of the building will be relieved by buttresses between the windows, and the whole effect of the exterior will be at once massive and graceful. The portico at the front, being twenty feet in advance of the line of the building, will still further add to the beauty of the design.

The building throughout will be fireproof, iron girders being used at the stories, and other precautions are being adopted to guard against the destruction of the edifice. Ventilation of the most complete kind has been provided, the steam apparatus to be used for heating the building being also designed to drive a fan to keep up a circulation of fresh air in all of the rooms. Provision has also been made for a bountiful supply of water at every story. The entire building will be devoted to Masonic purposes, and, therefore there will be no residence within the hall, as heretofore.

—Mr Kelsey, of New York, has revived the air-line railroad project between New York and Washington. He has introduced the same bill passed by the House of Representatives during the first session of the thirty-ninth Congress, with new corporators, viz: Simon Cameron, Thomas A. Scott, John McManus, David K. Jackman, W. McEvoy, James Duffy, James Andrews, William B. Willey, James D. ("Don,") Cameron, and John Edgar Thompson, of this State, William T. Walters, of Maryland, E. H. Nichols, E. M. Wadden, Richard Franchot, and Erastus Corning, of New York, G. M. Dodge, of Iowa, and J. C. Kennedy and Charles A. Sherman, of Washington, D. C. The bill was referred to the Committee on Railroads and Canals, which is understood to be favorable to it.

CURIOUS MURDER TRIAL.—A curious murder trial has just been concluded at Ionia, Mich. It appears that John Brown and William Morse had frequently quarreled, and the former had sworn he would kill Morse on the first opportunity. One morning Morse went to his barn, and some time afterward was found there, hanging by the neck with a strap taken from his own harness. The jury visited the premises, and from the position in which the body was found, came to the concision that he must have been strangled, and then placed in that position, to make it appear that he done the deed himself, and strong circumstances pointed to Brown as the murderer. He was convicted.

—A highly successful effort has been made at Huntingdon, Pa., to raise funds by subscription for the establishment of a normal school for the Seventh district, composed of the counties of Cumberland, Adams, Franklin, Fulton, Bedford, Huntingdon and Blair, under the act of 20th May, 1857. The sum of nearly thirty thousand dollars has been subscribed. If the State shows the same liberality to this institution that it has to others of the same kind, the school will not only be a grand success but an ornament to Huntingdon and the other counties of this normal district.

Public Debt Statement

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8, 1868.

IMPEACHMENT REVIVED.

The Committee on Reconstruction had a very strong session to-day. Representatives Stevens and Boutwell urged the adoption of a resolution for the impeachment and removal of the President, but the Committee finally referred the President's letters and General Grant's to a sub-committee, composed of Messrs. Bingham, Boutwell and Beck, with authority to investigate and report on the impeachment question. It is the opinion of leading members that the President has rendered himself liable to indictment for conspiracy.

The Committee adopted a bill removing the political disability from Governors Orr and Holden, and General Longstreet. Mr. Brooks moved to include General Beauregard, but the Committee refused.

NATIONAL COMMERCIAL CONVENTION.

Third Day's Session.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, Feb. 8.—The Commercial Convention opened this morning with prayer by Rev. R. L. Collier, of Chicago.

Gen. Walbridge, of New York, offered a series of resolutions, which he moved should lie on the table and be the order for the action of the Convention next year. The resolutions affirm the duty of Congress to foster all projects for the improvement of the present lines of communication and of those which shall be projected, particularly by land or water, between the Atlantic and Mississippi and Pacific, and that facilities as far as possible be afforded to enable through lines from north to south and east to west, to have double tracks.

Another resolution recommends a combination of railroads to secure a uniform system of freight for through trains or connecting trains at a speed of ten miles an hour, and favors the use of the same tracks for passengers and light and costly freights and of others for heavy freights.

The currency and finance report was then called up for discussion.

The report was warmly and ably discussed. Two amendments were accepted, the first recommending Congress to forbid National banks from selling any gold received as interest for bonds pledged for their circulation until such time as the entire amounts reserved by law to be kept by the banks shall be made up by coin; the second, that the bonds of United States already issued are exempted by law from taxation, and having thus been issued, it would be a violation of law to impose taxes upon them now, and a breach of faith on the part of the Government. The report of the Committee was then adopted.

A resolution was unanimously adopted re-affirming the adherence of the Convention to the principles of national honor as indicated in the report of the Finance Committee.

Three rousing cheers were given for national honor.

Votes of thanks were passed to the officers of the Convention, the Boston Board of Trade, and the State and city authorities for attention and hospitalities, and after an eloquent closing address by President Fox the Convention adjourned sine die.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Febauary 9.—The steamer Rising Star, from Aspinwall, brings $1,255,333 of California treasure.

Isthmus and Central American news unimportant.

Lima advices to January 22d state that President Canszos had arrived at Callao and would proceed to the capital that day, where he would have a cordial reception. Some minor fights occurred at the South, but tranquility was restored, and the whole Republic recognized the Canszos government.

The United States steamer Wateree was at Bolivia. The revolution there proved a mere local outbreak and was easily suppressed.

Valparaiso dates to January 10th state that agents are to leave in March for the United States, Great Britain, &c., to obtain emigrants for the southern portion of Chili. Salt works on a large scale will soon be established near Valparaiso.

The Japanese monitor Stonewall arrived at Valparaiso January 6th, in thirty-six days from Montevideo.

Fire at Boston.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BOSTON, Mass., February 9.—A fire early this morning in the granite building, 113 and 115 Commercial street, entirely consumed the two upper stories. The building was occupied by ship chandlers, commission merchants, etc., whose stocks were were much injured by fire and water. Losses pretty heavy, but all the sufferers were insured.

SOUTHERN STATES.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

VIRGINIA.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

RICHMOND, February 8.—In the Convention to-day a section authorizing the Legislature to create a Bureau of Agriculture and Immigration was adopted. A long debate occurred on the immigration part of the section, which was both opposed and urged on the Republican side. A Conservative member urged legislation barring immigration, because the antagonism between the laborers of two races was calculated to inaugurate a war of races. A colored delegate, in reply, said if such a war came it would never be inaugurated by the blacks.

NORTH CAROLINA.

RALEIGH, Feb. 8.—The Convention proceedings to-day were of little interest. The Committee on Privileges and Elections reported in favor of ousting Martin, of Yadkin, a Conservative. The bill of rights was discussed, but without definite action.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 8.—The Convention is still discussing the Bill of Rights. Nothing of public importance has transpired.

GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, Feb. 8.—In the Convention to-day an ordinance was passed to provide for defraying the expenses of the Convention by a tax of one-tenth of one per cent. on all taxable property, to be collected on or before the 1st of May, 1868.

The resolution to expel A. A. Bradley, a negro delegate, was made the special order for Tuesday.

The second section of the report of the Committee on Franchise as adopted recognizes no distinction between the races and provides that all voters shall have paid their taxes—if challenged they shall swear that their vote is not affected by any reward received or expected nor that they have given or promised any reward or made any threat to prevent any person from voting.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, February 8.—The Convention to-day adopted an ordinance providing for an election for the ratification of the Constitution immediately after adjournment, leaving the date blank. Another ordinance provides that elections for State, judicial, municipal and parish officers and State Legislature Representatives be held at the same time as the election for the Constitution.

An ordinance was adopted providing that registered electors may vote in any parish they may happen to be on the day of the election upon the presentation of their registration papers.

Of the new appointments to the City Council by Gen. Hancock five are lawyers. Of these, Duplatiers and Leaumont are now Judges in the District Courts. The other three have been on the bench. They are all citizens of the highest respectability and all whites.

FLORIDA.

TALLAHASSEE, February 8.—A minority Convention held three sessions to-day in secret. Five more have signed the Constitution. Many of them have done so reluctantly, having come to the conclusion they have been proceeding regardless of law and precedent. The Convention has concluded not to adjourn until they hear from General Meade. They have nominated a State ticket, consisting of Mr. Billings for Governor, Mr. Saunders (colored) for Lieut. Governor, and Mr. Gibbs (colored) for member of Congress.

A regular Republican Nominating Convention is called by the State Committee for the 11th inst.

Messengers were sent last night to the neighboring plantations calling the negroes to attend a mass meeting favoring the minority, which was held this afternoon. About 1,500 attended. In a speech by a colored minority delegate he called for the hanging of the seceding members by some of the crowd. The speaker said burn them. The portion claiming to be the majority will probably assemble on Monday and proceed as if there had been no interruption.

MISSISSIPPI.

JACKSON, February 8.—In the Convention to-day the reports of the Printing Committee, received some days ago, were adopted.

A resolution requiring all committees to report by the 14th inst. was referred.

A resolution requiring the report of the Committee on Destitution as adopted yesterday forwarded to General Gillem, with the request that he issue the necessary order, was adopted.

The vote cast on the Convention question was 17,590. The registered vote is 30,043. It is too soon to estimate, but the indications are that the Constitution will be defeated.

MOBILE, Feb. 9.—The election concluded yesterday. It passed off quite orderly. The vote of this city was: whites 89, colored 4,916.

FORTIETH CONGRESS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8, 1868.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Immediately after the reading of the Journal the House went into Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, Mr. DAWES in the Chair, for general debate on the President's annual message.

Mr. HUNTER addressed the House on the financial question. He argued that the true cause of the present depression in business arose, first from the partial failure of crops; second, from the contraction policy of the Secretary of the Treasury; third, from the action of the Democratic party in delaying the reconstructing of the seceded States. He believed that repudiation was not only the desire but the intention of the Democratic party if it carried the next election. His own remedy for the difficulty was as follows:

First—That only taxes enough should be levied to pay the interest on the public debt and the current expenses of the Government, leaving the principal until the country shall be in a prosperous condition.

Second—These taxes should not be levied so as to make every man pay according to his worth, but exclusively on luxuries, the favored classes and the wealth of the country, removing taxation from the laboring and producing interests of the country.

Third—All the Five-twenty Bonds which are payable at the pleasure of the Government, five years after date, should be declared due and payable at this time, and payable in the lawful currency of the United States, or exchangable at the pleasure of the holder into six per cent. long bonds, payable, principal and interest, in coin, untaxable, but with a deduction of one per cent. to be distributed to the States according to population.

Mr. STEVENS, of New Hampshire, next addressed the Committee on the question of general politics. He declared that the majority in Congress was not responsible for the present disturbed condition of the country, nor for the burdens now resting on the people. The responsibility lay on the people of the South, and their allies in the North. The rebellion had been a Democratic rebellion, the opposition to the army had been a Democratic one, and the failure to restore the rebel States was in consequence of Democratic opposition.

Mr. CLARK, of Ohio, addressed the Committee on the subject of national banks, the currency, public debt, &c. He favored paying the principal of the five-twenties in lawful currency and the substitution of greenbacks for national bank notes, but in such manner as not to do wrong or injury to the banks, which he thought could not be wound up without great evil to the country. He was in favor of the restoration of the free banking system, but would have no banks of issue, the currency being limited to greenbacks and specie.

Mr. JOHNSON next addressed the Committee on the general political questions of the day.

The Committee rose and the House adjourned.

NOTORIOUS FENIAN CAPTURED—DESPERATE ATTEMPT AT RESCUE.

LONDON, February 8.—A notorious Fenian, Captain Mackay, was captured in Cork last evening by the police of that city. While the officers were en route to the jail with their prisoner his friends rallied in great force, and for a time a desperate fight prevailed. The mob was finally beaten down and the prisoner lodged in jail. The guards around the jail were doubled during the night to prevent a rescue.

LONDON, February 9.—Selwyn is sure to succeed Sir Wm. Erle as Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas.

BISMARCK SEEKS RELAXATION.

BERLIN, Feb. 8.—Count Bismarck has obtained leave of absence from his post as Prime Minister of the North German Confederation, and will devote several months to travel through the countries of Europe. FEELING TOWARDS THE UNITED STATES.

BERLIN, February 9.—At an interview last week Count von Bismarck told Gen. Carl Schurz that it was the most earnest desire of his royal master, the King of Prussia, to cultivate the good will of the people of the United States. This favorable disposition of the King of Prussia is regarded by Americans here as most important, in view of the necessity which may arise in the selection of some European power as umpire in the pending difference between the United States and Great Britain.

PARIS, February 8.—Young Iturbide, heir of the late Emperor Maximilian, has recently enlisted in the Papal Zouaves at Rome.

CHANGE OF POLICY.

The Herald's cable dispatch says Napoleon has altered his policy toward the Pope and Italy in a sudden and remarkable manner. He evinces a disposition to abandon his position of champion of the Holy See. Assured, it is said, of the existence of Bourbon intrigues radiating from Rome, the Imperial diplomacy with Rome has become colder, while the friendly relations hitherto existing with Victor Emanuel are to be renewed.

Queen Isabella is forced to dissolve her Papal Legion, recruited under her warrant in Madrid, as Napoleon flatly objects to service in the cause of the Holy See.

THE PRESS BILL.

PARIS, February 9.—The bill for the regulation of the press is still under discussion in the Corps Legislatif. Last week the Liberals proposed as an amendment, to insert a clause specially providing for the trial by jury of all offences of the press. After a heated debate a vote was taken yesterday on the amendment and it was defeated by two hundred nays to thirty-five yeas.

Water has been bored for according to the American plan and found in abundance, near the English line of march. The coast shore had been lighted by the English for naval purposes. Camp followers from India were being returned home. The Egyptian Governor of Quassoma was recalled with, it is said, the approval of the British authorities.

Pronunciamentos Against the Government—Another Revolution.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, February 8.—The Herald's Mexican news via Havana cable says: Pronunciamentos against the government were multiplying, and general Coroaka had fallen under suspicion. A revolution had broken out in Sinelas. Senor Moralez, who had been kidnapped, was shot by his captors on his failure to obtain the required ransom.

A naval engagement is reported at Sisal. The merchants at San Louis Potosi have been released from prison and the forced taxes have been reduced. Sinoloa elected Garcia Morales as Governor. The resignation of General Mendez had been accepted. Gen. Jimenez, in Guerrerie, had decided not to heed the instructions of the general government, and was preparing to settle his dispute with Alvarez by an appeal to arms. He intended to march against Acapulco.

GALVESTON, Feb. 8.—The Bureau of Mexican intelligence at Brownsville, sends the following news: Another revolution has broken out under Valdest. A detachment of government troops had been routed by the revolutionists.

An expedition from the northern part of the State of Tobasco had started under one Rastin to march. Mendez is reported to be the prime mover. General Sanchez Ochoa, an Ortegaist, had been arrested and imprisoned at San Luis Potosi.

A movement is on foot in the State of Vera Cruz to detach several villages from that State and form a new one. From all parts of the interior come reports of robberies, kidnapping and murders.

Francisco Patosi was elected Governor of the State of Durango.

The life polity of Puebla has ordered the suppressment of persons unable to pay their debts.

Two Americans named Cook and Pillow en route for Tehaucan were murdered by Mexicans. They were emigrants from Western Texas.

Canales, Queroga and Carvagal are organizing near Campargo, in Tamaulipas, preparatory to a revolution. Their agents are in Brownsville purchasing arms and munitions of war, and troops have been sent from Matamoras.

An expedition which started under Felix P. Gatt to invade Galapa failed, owing to desertion.

Cortinas has threatened a revolution of Juan Jascete.

La Gonza has not given possession of the Gubernatorial seat of Tamaulipas, which he claims having won in the last election.

The Herald's Mazatlan special of February 1st, says the revolutionists are uniting their forces to attack Governor Rubi, who is in the mountains with twelve hundred men. They had one fight, and a decisive battle was daily expected. The Governor, it was thought, would be sustained by the forces of President Juarez.

General Martinez proclaimed himself Governor of Sinoloa on the 18th, and called for a loan of a hundred thousand dollars. Several bodies of regular troops declared in his favor.

A riot in Durango had been suppressed.

An American woman was found murdered near Guadalajara, with seven stiletto stabs about her breast and heart.

SAN FRANCISCO, February 9.—Advices to February 1st, from Sinaloa state that dissatisfaction was caused by the Legislature proving in favor of Gen. Domingo Rubi for Governor. The General Government sent Corona to reconcile the contestants, but before the settlement of affairs was effected Corona was recalled to Guadalajara as a check on Lazada, whereupon Martinez declared the election unconstitutional and assumed command ad interim in Mazatlan. None of the officials were removed and no changes made except the Governorship. Rubi was at Concordia with a thousand men. Martinez's force was smaller, but better supplied. No collision yet. The foreign merchants at Mazatlan favor Martinez with expectations of inducing him to allow several cargoes of European goods now due to enter at reduced duties. The difficulty was purely local. Both Rubi and Martinez were supporters of Juarez.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

English & Co's Book Establishment Destroyed—Three Buildings Burned—Loss $200,000—Partially Covered by Insurance—The Work of an Incendiary.

One of the most destructive fires that has occurred in the city for several years took place yesterday morning, between three and four o'clock. Three fine buildings on Fourth street, among which was A. H. English & Co's Book Bindery and Printing establishment, were left in ruins, involving a loss of at least two hundred thousand dollars worth of property.

FIRST ALARM.

About one o'clock in the morning Lieutenant Wilmot, of the police force, who was on duty at the time, discovered smoke issuing from the press room, which was in the basement of English & Co.'s establishment, and at once communicated the fact to the Central office of the Fire Alarm Telegraph, from which the alarm was sounded. The Fire Department answered the call promptly, and in a few moments the fire was extinguished, after which the Assistant Engineer of the Fire Department, accompanied by the Fire Marshal and three policemen, made a thorough examination of the lower portion of the building, and were satisfied that the fire had been thoroughly extinguished. Mr. McElroy, the Assistant Engineer, then left the place in charge of the Fire Marshal and police, with instructions to the police to remain and keep watch over it until the proprietors arrived.

THE FIRE.

Between three and four o'clock the policemen who had remained in the building, hearing an unusual noise, went to the front door when they discovered flames issuing from the third story of the building adjoining, which was also occupied by English & Co., and about the same time the operator at the Central office discovered the fire and gave the alarm; but before the engines could get into service, the flames had made such rapid progress that it was a matter of impossibility to save the building. From it the flames were communicated to the main building of the firm, which was a four story brick with an iron front, the basement of which was occupied as a press room, the street floor by George F. Knott & Co. as a wholesale shoe store, the remainder by English & Co., as a book binding and printing establishment, and in less than half an hour the entire building was a mass of ruins. The next house that fell a prey to the devouring element was that owned by C. H. Paulson and occupied by John D. Bailey, real estate agent, as an office and dwelling, a three story brick adjoining the book establishment, which was totally destroyed. So rapidly did the flames advance that Mr. Bailey was barely enabled to get his wife and children from the burning building, not even allowing them time to dress themselves. By this time the flames had reached the building next adjoining Mr. Bailey's, which was occupied by Mrs. Thorn, and owned by Mr. Paulson, burning everything in the second and third stories, including a fine piano. The adjoining building, owned and occupied by R. D. Brucklocher, tailor, was slightly damaged. The building on the opposite side of the street, occupied by Dr. King, and the one adjoining it, owned by R. C. G. Sproul and occupied by Mrs. Fulton as a boarding house, were slightly damaged, and only saved from destruction by the timely closing of the window shutters. The building adjoining, owned by Mrs. Stevenson, and occupied by Gen. Sweitzer, C. D. Arnsthal and Dr. James Orr, was considerably damaged, the roof having been burned off and the building flooded with water.

ENGLISH & CO'S LOSSES.

In addition to the destruction of the two buildings, which were valued at $45,000, the losses of Messrs. English & Co. will not fall short of $75,000. Their stock of books, paper &c., was very heavy, and was estimated at $25,000, while their machinery, consisting of three first class Adams presses, two impression presses, one hydraulic press, two ruling machines, three folding machines, one cutting machine, and a large quantity of other valuable machinery, including the engine, was worth fully $50,000.

THE INSURANCE.

The firm of A. H. English & Co. are insured to the amount of $44,000, in the following companies: Ætna, Hartford, $12,000; Putnam, Connecticut, $2,500; Girard, Philadelphia, $3,500; Government, New York, $3,000; Albany, New York, $3,000; Enterprise, Cincinnati, $3,000; Albany City, New York, $2,500; Columbia, Pa., $2,500; Astor, New York, $4,500; International, New York, $5,000; Cumberland Valley Mutual, Pa., $2,500; Mr. John D. Bailey was insured in a Pittsburgh company for $2,500. His loss will overreach that amount considerably. The losses on the remainder of the property destroyed are fully covered by insurance.

THE ORIGIN OF THE FIRE.

There is a diversity of opinion existing as to the immediate origin of the fire, but all agree that it was the work of an incendiary. It is quite evident from the statements of all who examined the premises after the first fire that it at least was not the result of accident, as the stoves, furnace and every place about the building where there had been fire the day previous were found to be perfectly cold. A window leading to the basement was found open, and about twenty feet from the stove was discovered a bundle of paper, some wood and a quantity of coal, which had evidently been burning for some time, and directly over it a hole was burned through the floor. It is the opinion of many that the second fire originated from the first, but the fact of the fire breaking out in the third story of the adjoining building to which the first fire was in would seem to indicate a different theory. Mr. English informs us that he went through the building Saturday night before closing up and saw that all the fires were extinguished. He is fully satisfied that the fire was not the result of accident. This, we believe, is the third time this firm have been burned out.

THE RUINS.

During the entire day Fourth street in the vicinity of the ruins, was crowded with people, and about noon the crowd became so dense that the police had to be called into service to clear the sidewalks, so as to enable persons to pass. From Smithfield street, the sight was rather a novel one, on account of the number of umbrellas, which were brought into requisition in consequence of the continual rain. The wires of the A. & P. Telegraph Company were broken down by the falling wall, but hands were set to work at once to repair them.

Moffitt-Thompson Conspiracy Case.

This case, of which our readers must have a distinct recollection, came up again in the Quarter Sessions last week, Judge Stowe delivering the opinion of the Court on the motion of M. Swartzwelder, Esq., in arrest of judgment. The Court decided four of the counts in the indictment were bad, and the remaining two good. Alexander Moffitt, formerly a resident of Brownsville, was indicted with Wm. Dawson for conspiracy to charge Alexander Thompson, of Washington county, with passing counterfeit United States currency. Dawson, who made the oath before the United States Commissioner, upon which Thompson was arrested and held to answer, absconded before the case could be acted upon by a grand jury, and has never since appeared in the neighborhood where he resided at the time of the prosecution. Moffitt was tried twice, the Court arresting judgment and awarding a new trial in the first instance. The arrest of judgment on four counts of the indictment, in the second instance, practically, as far as the defendant Moffitt is concerned, amounts to nothing, the two good counts being sufficient at least to hold him responsible for the costs in the case, which amount to upwards of two thousand dollars. His place of residence at the time of the trial was Washington city.

The mysterious disappearance of Mr. Anthony Freyvogel, the Liberty street merchant, continues to excite much speculation, but as yet nothing has been learned of his whereabouts. His friends are confident that he has been foully dealt with, and entertain no idea that he either made away with himself or took departure for any other city or country. Diligent search has been made for him in this and other cities all to no avail, and his disappearance daily grows more mysterious.

The Home for the Friendless established on Penn street is destined to work great good, and the credit of its organization is due to the enterprise and exertion of Mr. Thomas Rabe and Mr. and Mrs. John Watt. The Prison Association is co-operating in the movement, and has appointed a committee to wait on our citizens to solicit subscriptions, and will commence operations to-day. We trust their efforts will be generously seconded by large contributions from the charitable.

New Church Opening.

The formal opening of the elegant new church edifice, just erected by the Lawrenceville M. E. Church congregation, took place yesterday. Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather which prevailed throughout the day, the interest was of the most glowing character. The opening of this structure is but one of the many evidences of the progressive steps of this part of our new consolidated city. Under the excellent borough government, streets have been laid out with great regularity, and the improvements of late have been in marked contrast to former years. With the permanency and progressive improvements taking place, the necessity of having better churches, of modern style, was felt, and the result is churches are springing up here and there of a higher grade.

Methodism, like other denominations, had to contend with many hinderances, growing out of the close proximity of the place to the city proper. Residents were disposed to retain a connection with old church associations, and simply hold a nominal relation to those in their immediate neighborhood. This was the case in regard to the society here, though in some respects it was quite natural, as the society only formed one appointment of several in a circuit. But as the population increased, and improvements of a better class were made, the Methodist society gradually grew stronger, and for several years has been able to sustain well a minister. Full quarter of a century ago the Methodist society worshipped in a one story unpretending brick building, on Butler street, now occupied as a private dwelling. The next step was the occupancy of a building on elevated ground near the present structure, now known as the Lawrenceville Academy. Believing a change would be better, an eligible lot was purchased on Covington street, opposite the Arsenal grounds, and a frame structure of good proportions was erected. Here the church grew strong and prospered with the prosperity around it. The German Methodists having purchased the property, they took full possession yesterday, and enter with fine prospects for the future.

During the Centenary year the congregation resolved to honor God and commemorate that event by taking measures to build an edifice with all the modern conveniences of the age. This movement was inaugurated under the direction of Rev. J. W. Baker, now of Allegheny, in 1866, at which time an eligible lot was purchased on the corner of Butler and Covington streets, and partly paid for. A liberal subscription was also received for the building. About ten months ago the building was commenced, and has so far been completed as to permit the lecture room to be formally opened yesterday. The building is ninety by sixty, with a tasteful steeple one hundred and sixty feet above the ground. The style of architecture is a modified gothic, with a slight blending of the grecian. The main audience chamber, with end gallery, will accommodate eight hundred to one thousand persons. The interior is to be elegantly fitted up, and to be lighted with a sun burner of considerable focus. Not being fully completed we omit any further discription of this part.

The lecture room is completed in elegant style. It is doubtful if there is a more convenient and well arranged lecture room in the city. It is large, nearly fifty seven feet square, fine height, and well lighted with double framed windows. The walls are of a highly colored orange tint, with a rich creamy ceiling. The wood work of the building is heavy mold, and beautifully oaked, as the seats and pulpit. Floor covered with rich carpeting, and the house admirably heated. The provisions for lighting with gas are well adjusted. The lecture room may be entered by the massive front door way, through a short hall, with a class room on both sides; but the entrance from the side street is more convenient and suitable. In the rear is a library room, from which a private stairway leads to the pulpit of the audience chamber.

The formal opening yesterday was crowned with auspicious circumstances. The fact that nothing but a basket collection was taken betokened a healthy state of the finances. At the morning hour, Rev. Dr. H. Miller, of Smithfield Street Church, discoursed on the glorious Gospel of Christ. In the afternoon Rev. R. L. Miller, of Birmingham, occupied the pulpit, in which he set forth the adaptation of the Gospel to the masses. Rev. S. P. Wolfe, Presiding Elder, preached at night on the Resurrection of the Righteous. It is saying little to affirm that these discourses were well received and highly appreciated by the thronging audiences at each service. Besides these ministers named, there were also present, residents in the neighborhood, Rev. John Martin, formerly a member of Conference, Rev. John Wilkinson, Chaplain of the Pittsburgh Poor Home, Rev. W. McCracken, and two local ministers, Messrs. Clows and Bateman.

Great praise is awarded the Building Committee for their herculean labors, namely, Rev. J. Wilkinson, W. A. Chapman, S. Duff, T. B. Stewart and J. Medcalfe. Mr. Joseph Bender, the Superintendent of the Sunday School, is spoken of highly for his labors. And, as usual, the ladies rendered signal service. Although the movement was inaugurated during the pastorate of Rev. J. W. Baker, yet the commencement of the building, and its progress and partial completion, devolved upon Rev. James A. Miller, the present pastor. His success in other projects of a similar character was a pledge of what could be done in this, and which has been consummated so very well. He is quite popular as a preacher and pastor, and merits all the good words said in his favor.

Missionary Anniversary.

Christ M. E. Church set apart yesterday for missionary purposes, an event of considerable importance to this congregation; indeed, to all the Methodist congregations in the city once each year, in accordance with the direction of the Church authorities. For years Christ Church has given largely to this interest. The effect upon other churches has always been marked and inspiring. In view of what the congregation had done heretofore for this noble cause, considerable interest prevailed among them to sustain their good name, notwithstanding the adverse times that exist and from other causes.

Notwithstanding the fact that Bishop Simpson was not able to be present, according to announcement, on account of the dangerous illness of his eldest son, and the disagreeable weather which prevailed throughout the entire day, the congregation entered upon the day in good spirits and ready to do their part. Rev. L. F. Morgan, D. D., the honored pastor, delivered a discourse of great power, and one admirably suited to the occasion. At the close of the sermon the congregation quietly placed their offerings in the hands of collectors.

In the afternoon the usual anniversary exercises of the Sabbath school took place in the chapel of the church, an occasion always of great interest, because a considerable sum is always contributed through this channel, instead of at the morning service. The spirit of emulation, too, is rife among the classes to excel each other. Then the exercises are varied and interesting. The pastor, Dr. Morgan, and Revs. E. B. Snyder, of North Avenue M. E. Church, occupied seats with the superintendents, Messrs. Horner and Kier, on the platform. Addresses of much interest and instruction were delivered by Revs. Mersey, Locke and Snyder. Dr. Morgan also made some happy and well timed remarks. The exercises were interspersed throughout with soul-stirring songs, accompanied with the skilful manipulations of the organist, Mr. Boyle, both under the direction and capital leadership of Prof. G. M. Alexander, chorister of the Church. The grand finale of the afternoon services, however, was the offerings of the school—the announcement of which was made by our young friend, Mr. John G. Holmes, son of the late lamented Nathaniel Holmes, as follows: By classes and special offerings the aggregate reached the sum of $3,311 99, which, with the contributions after the morning sermon of $1,771, made the grand total of five thousand eighty-two dollars and ninety-nine cents, an increase of several hundred dollars over last year's contributions.

Much credit is awarded, and justly too, to the Superintendents of this well-ordered school, Mr. Joseph Horne and Mr. Samuel M. Kier, for the missionary spirit which prevails so largely in the school. These gentlemen are well known as two of our most enterprising merchants, and also for their princely gifts to educational and benevolent objects.

Compromised.—Charles Wagner made information before Alderman Taylor, on Saturday, charging Ernest Stuckhart with obtaining goods under false pretense. It appeared that the defendant had purchased a pair of boots from the prosecutor for twelve dollars, and failed to pay for them at the appointed time. Stuckhart was arrested and taken to the Alderman's office, where the case was compromised by payment of the bill and costs by the accused.

Separate Indebtedness of the Consolidated City—Commissioners Appointed.

J. F. Slagle, City Attorney, in the District Court, on Saturday, presented a petition in the matter of the appointment of Commissioners to ascertain the separate indebtedness of the several districts included within the city as consolidated under the act of April 6th, 1867. The petition reads:

To the Honorable the Judges of the District Court of Allegheny county:

The petition of the city of Pittsburgh, by J. F. Slagle, Attorney, respectfully represents,

That under and by virtue of an act of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, approved April 6, 1867, entitled a "further supplement to the act incorporating the city of Pittsburgh, extending its boundaries, enlarging its corporate powers, perfecting its municipal organization and submitting the proposed consolidation to a vote of the people," the first or Central District, composed of the city of Pittsburgh, the borough of Lawrenceville, and the townships of Pitt, Collins, Oakland, Liberty and Peebles, was consolidated and incorporated as the city of Pittsburgh, and a new city government has been organized under the provisions of said act; that by the thirty-third section of said act it is provided that a commission, consisting of three disinterested freeholders of Allegheny county, shall be appointed to ascertain the amount of separate indebtedness of each city, borough and township included within the boundaries of the city of Pittsburgh as consolidated, as aforesaid, and to fix a rate of special tax to be separately levied and collected in each of said cities, boroughs and townships, for the payment of the separate indebtedness of each; your petitioner would therefore pray your Honors to appoint three suitable persons as Commissioners for that purpose.

J. F. SLAGLE, City Attorney.

The Court granted the petition, ordering as follows:

And now, February 8th, 1868, the foregoing petition having been presented in open Court, do hereby appoint David N. White, of Sewickley, Alexander Gordon, of Wilkins township, and John Walker, Jr., of West Elizabeth, as Commissioners under the provisions of the 33d section of the act of April 6th, 1867, and do constitute them a commission for the purpose and with all the powers and duties therein prescribed.

PER CURIAM.

A Deserted Family.

Yesterday morning a man, accompanied by a little girl about five years of age and an infant but a few months old, arrived at the Union Depot from Mansfield, Ohio, on his way East. He related a sad story, which was calculated to enlist the sympathies of all who heard it. It was as follows: About two years ago he married a young widow in Mansfield, whose husband had been killed in the army. The widow was at that time the mother of one child, the little girl which accompanied him. Some months since she gave birth to the infant referred to. Their life, he said, had been a happy one, not a single cloud having intervened to darken the sunshine of their happiness from the time they were married until within a few days. He had a younger brother, who had, for a long time, been quite intimate in his family, but he never had the least cause to suspect him guilty of any improprieties with his wife. A few mornings since, however, he awoke to find himself and children deserted. His wife and brother had disappeared. He ascertained that they had gone West. His first duty, he said, was to the children, which he was taking to his relatives, and after seeing them properly cared for he would go in search of the guilty pair, and punish them as their conduct deserved. The unfortunate man appeared to be greatly attached to the children, the one by the former husband as much as his own, and the child was equally attached to him. How a mother could so basely desert her helpless children and leave them to the care of strangers, is more than we can devine. She must be destitute of all the finer feelings which constitute a mother's love, as well as void of all self respect. She richly deserves all the misery her infamous conduct is sure to entail upon her.

The German Theatre.

The direction of the German Theatre, which has been for the last six months anything but satisfactory, has just fallen into the hands of Mr. Zerboni, a gentleman of experience and ability. He is a distinguished actor and has gained in that capacity a high place among our stage contributors. The name of Mr. Zerboni associated with the management revives hopes that the public confidence in a German Theatre has returned with new strength, and an expression of grateful feeling may be confidently looked for. Mr. Zerboni has just gone to New York, from whence he expects to return with a considerable number of selected actors, with whom he desires to make the German theatre of Pittsburgh a first class place of resort for the intelligent portion of the population, both German and English. We congratulate the city upon his accession, and especially our Teutonic friends, and wish for the German Theatre success and prosperity. The Academy of Music has been leased and the opening, with the entire new company, will take place next Wednesday evening, provided the arrangements can be completed by that time.

The Police.

The new system of police duty inaugurated by Mayor Blackmore and the Police Committee so far is working well and meets with almost universal favor. Instead of the former method of having the day and night force separate, the whole force is now in one, and divided into three reliefs, the night relief being equal in numbers to both the day reliefs. In order that the night turn may be equally borne by all, the night force of last week becomes the day force of the present week. The force is under supervision of eight Lieutenants, four of whom are on during the day—two with each relief, and the remaining four at night. The city has been divided into thirty-six beats—more than there are men on either of the day reliefs. They are all properly manned at night—some of the larger ones having two men on them. The men are to be uniformed, and it is probable that the style worn by the Metropolitan Police will be adopted.

Anti-Annexation.

The citizens of McClure township, or a portion of them, object to becoming citizens of Allegheny, and on Saturday evening they held an anti-annexation meeting at the school house. The meeting organized by calling Mr. William Walker to the chair, and appointing Thomas Payette Secretary. A committee of five was appointed to draft resolutions, who retired and after a short absence reported resolutions remonstrating against being annexed to the city, and asking the Legislature to protect them. The report of the committee was adopted and a copy of it, accompanied by a resolution unanimously signed, ordered to be forwarded to the Legislature. The meeting then adjourned.

Afloat.—Mrs. Martin, who resides on Elm street, at the foot of Decatur street, on entering her dining room yesterday morning found her furniture afloat in about two feet of water. The dining room floor is below the level of the street, and the volume of water which came down Decatur street being greater than the gutters on Elm street would carry away, it was forced across the street and into the house. The family were not only deprived of their breakfast, but were kept busily at work until nearly dinner time "bailing out" the dining room.

Admitted.—Our talented and esteemed friend Mr. J. McKelvey was, on motion of Major A. M. Brown, on Saturday last, admitted to practice law in the Court of Common Pleas. In entering into professional life Mr. McKelvey has our earnest wishes for his success and prosperity. He is thoroughly versed in legal lore and cannot fail to advance rapidly to the front rank of his profession.

Explosion.—Between eleven and twelve o'clock Saturday night an explosion occurred at the Clinton Iron Works, in Monongahela borough. The vent in one of the furnaces had just been stopped with wet clay when the furnace exploded with a loud report and was torn to atoms. One man, whose name we did not learn, was severely injured.

A meeting of the Catholics of this city was held yesterday at the Convent Chapel, on Webster street, for the purpose of subscribing in aid of the Sisters of Mercy to enable them to rebuild St. Xavier's Academy. Quite a handsome amount was realized.

GENUINE
GLYCERINE TOILET SOAP,
Manufactured by PETER SQUIRE, 277 Oxford Street, London.
This Soap has been, by a peculiar process, freed from the excess of alkali almost invariably found even in the purest Soaps, and at the same time it is made to take up a large quantity of Glycerine, (40 per cent.) It is to this latter substance that it chiefly owes its soothing quality—softening the skin, preserving the complexion, preventing chapping and the unpleasant roughness experienced in cold weather. It is found most useful in alleviating the irritation produced by dryness of the skin. On account of its great purity it recommends itself to all persons that suffer from the use of common Soaps; for delicate skins it is the only Soap that can be tolerated. It is particularly useful for cleansing diseased skins, where the irritation produced by ordinary Soaps causes so much inconvenience. It is the most agreeable Shaving Soap that can be used, leaving the skin soft and comfortable. The Soaps usually sold as Glycerine Soaps contain little or no Glycerine. It is only necessary to apply the tongue to the surface and the genuine will be distinguished by the sweet taste.
Agent, SIMON JOHNSTON, Fourth & Smithfield streets. Also, agent for SARG'S VIENNA GLYCERINE SOAP.

The Pittsburgh Gazette

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1868.

THE Presidents of Pennsylvania Colleges held an important Convention at Harrisburg, which we shall notice in detail shortly.

GEN. CAMERON has earned the applause of all considerate men in protesting against the employment of secret agents by the State Department. Such agents belong to a system of diplomacy the world is fast outgrowing. One honest, frank and explicit negotiator is worth a whole army of sneaks and spies.

LIGHT!

We feel warranted in announcing that within thirty days the work requisite to complete the Connellsville Railroad will be advertised for letting, and that the whole will be finished probably in the space of a year, or, at farthest, within sixteen months. In a few days we shall be in a position to give the details of the contemplated arrangements.

THE Republicans of Wayne and Pike counties have appointed Mr. John Shouse delegate to the State Convention. Instructed for Grant and Curtin.

Col. Samuel Knorr has been selected as the Senatorial delegate from the Columbia District to the Republican State Convention. The Representative delegate has been conceded to Montour county.

In Clarion the Republicans have made G. W. Lathy and B. J. Reid delegates to the State Convention, and instructed for Grant and Curtin.

THE Beaver County Republican Central Committee met in Beaver on Saturday and elected Messrs. J. S. Rutan and J. C. Boyle as delegates to the State Convention. Messrs. Benjamin Wilde, G. C. Barker, Hon. M. S. Quay, D. L. Imbrie and D. Weyand were appointed conferrees to meet with conferrees from other counties of the District to select delegates to the National Convention.

Resolutions were adopted instructing for Gen. Grant for President, ex-Gov. Andrew G. Curtin for Vice President, Gen. Hartranft for Auditor General and Col. Campbell for Surveyor General.

FOR some weeks past the larger part of the democratic organs have extravagantly lauded President JOHNSON for selecting his appointees from among "his own friends;" meaning out of the democratic party. The President is showing signs of thinking it is of no use for him to have "friends" unless he can make them of use to him, as well as he to be of service to them. He wants them to cease from PENDLETON as a Presidential candidate, and cleave unto him. Can the Post inform us whether the President's democratic friends intend to desert him after getting all from him they can?

ONLY one thing do we care to say in reply to the Harrisburg Telegraph, and that in short metre. Members of the Legislature, or others, may think it legitimate to introduce bills, with or without examination, striking seriously at large industrial or commercial interests; tending to put those interests under contribution to sharpers, on pretense of promoting the public welfare; throwing those interests into temporary uncertainty; and taking men concerned therein away from their homes and affairs, on expense, to explain or counteract, but business men take a different view of the case. They hold that legislators are bound to know what they are about, and not, with eyes open or shut, strike at whole classes or whole communities. They will resent such blows as promptly as legislators do aspersions upon their integrity. At the opening of the session, some lessons were inculcated, on this head, that ought not soon to be forgotten. Other lessons, of like character, will follow in due season, from this section of the Commonwealth.

SOLDIERS ORPHANS.

GEORGE F. MCFARLAND, Esq., Superintendent of the Soldiers' Orphan's Schools of Pennsylvania, furnishes us with his annual report for 1867, made to the Governor in pursuance of law. The law provides for the care, maintenance and education, at the expense of the State, of the destitute orphan children of all such deceased soldiers and sailors, citizens of Pennsylvania, and soldiers who have served in Pennsylvania regiments as have died in the service of the United States in the late war to suppress the rebellion. Owing to the inadequacy of the first appropriation much difficulty was experienced in disposing of all the applications made for admission into the schools, and, indeed, in providing for those already received into the schools. After mature deliberation the Superintendent resolved to retain all the scholars, to admit only the oldest and neediest applicants, to discharge promptly all the scholars arriving at the age of sixteen, and in no event to allow the expenditures to exceed $450,000 per year, the sum voted by the House. During the last seven months of the year one hundred and eighty-one pupils were added to the Soldiers Schools, although the Superintendent effected a change in the grade of scholarship which fully compensated for this additional number, entailing no additional cost.

In the State there are twelve schools for the more advanced scholars, containing 1,041 male and 728 female pupils; there are three Primary schools containing 180 males and 158 females. There are 26 Homes and other institutions which admit 638 males and 418 females; at the Home for destitute colored children there are 15 males and 7 females. These figures give us 1,874 male and 1,306 female scholars, affording a grand total of 3,180 orphans supported, maintained and educated by the State out of gratitude for the services performed by their fathers on the field of battle. In 1867 the whole number of accepted applications received was 1,095, being 602 less than in 1866, and 753 less than in 1865; the number of orders issued 739, being 1,040 less than in 1866, and 843 less than in 1865; the number of admissions 630, being 945 less than in 1866, and 612 less than in 1865; the number of discharges, &c., 125, being 7 more than in 1866, and 104 more than in 1865; while the number in school at the close of the year was only 499 greater than at the close of the previous year, before which the schools were not fairly in operation.

These figures show conclusively that the maximum number in school at any one time has now been, or is being reached, and that hereafter it will decrease. The decrease from discharges on age alone will be 374 in 1868, 329 in 1869, 348 in 1870, 403 in 1871, 479 in 1872, 460 in 1873, 416 in 1874, 344 in 1875, and 207 in 1876, when the number will have been reduced to the capacity of a single institution of ordinary size.

The entire cost of clothing 1,988 orphans in the advanced schools for the eleven months ending December 1st, 1867, was $45,538 57, or $22,90 for each orphan.

The schools will enter the new year with a fair supply of good clothing, all provided at the average cost of twenty-five dollars for each child per annum.

The salaries paid during eleven months amounted to $4,974.98; other general expenses of the Department, such as postage, stationery, blank books, printing, advertising, funeral expenses, &c., amounted to $1,806.62.

While the number of children actually in school on the first of December, 1867, was 3,180, the number of outstanding orders, which entitle the holders to admission whenever presented, 640, and the number of applications on file awaiting orders, 540, making a total of 4,360 children to be provided for, exclusive of the additional applications received after December 1, 1867; yet the discharges will occur so rapidly, and the actual admissions may be made so gradually, that the number actually in school may be kept from exceeding 3,500, on the 1st of June, 1868, and 3,600 during the following year, or by the 1st of June, 1869, before which the maximum will have been reached, and the decrease have commenced.

Thus restricted, the average number in school will not differ materially from 3,400 for the six months ending June 1, 1868, and 3,500 for the year ending June 1, 1869.

Assuming that no provision will be made for no more than the numbers here indicated, the Superintendent estimates the average cost per pupil for the year at $142.98. This contemplates only the admission of the friendless and destitute, and the Superintendent strongly urges the Legislature to make a more liberal appropriation, so as to provide for the reception of fully five hundred more pupils, and as the maximum number will be reached this year, the grant now asked will be the heaviest that will ever be required.

The Superintendent is not particularly pleased with the character, style and accommodations of the advanced and primary schools, and sets them down as approaching failures when compared with model institutions of the character. However, he congratulates himself that most of the schools show steady and encouraging advance towards the required standard.

The report concludes by paying a just tribute to the patriotism of Gov. CURTIN, to whose sympathy, wise and far seeing statesmanship is due the establishment of the Soldiers' Orphans' schools in Pennsylvania.

MR. PARTON AND SMOKERS.

MR. JAMES PARTON has recently published in the Atlantic a labored apology for non-smokers, which class he confesses himself to have dropped into, after thirty years habitual and consistent smoking. Doubtless he might have concealed his fall, from all but a few pitying friends, but the need of self justification, appears to have impelled him to make his weakness public.

He is to be thanked for doing so, nevertheless since his confession comes in the shape of a very pleasant article; abundantly one-sided, as special pleading must be; yet at the same time, an interesting evidence of changing public opinion on the subject.

Sixty years ago a contributor to a respectable periodical, would almost as soon have thought of informing the educated public that he had ceased to pick pockets, and of warning them against that objectionable habit, as of choosing for his theme a custom disreputable as smoking was then thought.

Thirty years later a fair consideration of the smokers' side of the question was still unusual, and even to-day, the non smoking public has barely reached that degree of tolerance, which admits that an adversary may seem to himself to have reasons which are not only an excuse, but a warrant. Public opinion, as all admit though, is changing, and Mr. PARTON, if he live to write an Atlantic article thirty years hence, will at this rate of progress find an audience prepared for fair discussion of his views; if, indeed, he have not in the meantime thought better of it, and resumed his cigar, as his true friends, of course, trust he will do.

It may seem hardly just to imply that this ingenious article does not contain a fair discussion of the subject, but it is hard to see how any one reading it without prejudice can question the fact.

It has doubtless been noticed by the discerning reader, that after a man has wholly laid aside tobacco, (and even good men have done so,) its kindly influences do not at once desert him, but that a certain geniality of feeling, a sort of refined good-fellowship, and a kindly pity for error, in some cases remain and leaven the disposition, long after their fosterer, the generous cigar, has been discarded.

Only to the power of some such reminiscent tolerance can we owe that opening picture of the old hod-carrier—so kindly in the artist's sympathy, and so gentle in the touches with which it is drawn; unless we believe it to have been penned under the benign influences of a good "Partagas" or "Figaro regalia," to which the writer treated himself for that occasion only. If Mr. PARTON borrowed his inspiration from that legitimate source, and, the portrait done, concealed the means to which he owed its color, who will not forgive him? It is to be wished that he had smoked all the way through his paper, for much that follows, belongs more to the advocate for the prosecution, than to the judge, whose chair the writer assumes.

In a recent agreeable article in this journal, not unkindly in its tone, nor unfair, Mr. PARTON's argument is spoken of as an "orthodox" one, as it no doubt is.

The writer on the "orthodox" side, like Mr. PARTON, conscious of most readers' good wishes, may reasonably reckon that his premises will not be rudely denied, nor his deductions impugned, nor his conclusion objected to by them; and will probably convince all who desire to accept his conclusions

Those who wish to test the impartiality which Mr. PARTON doubtless really thinks he attains, may take almost any statement he makes, and examine what weight it would carry with them if its conclusions were adverse to their views. For instance—"One of the effects of tobacco on the male of our species is to disenchant him with regard to the female," etc.

This is not a conclusion of Mr. PARTON's, but his commencement. It is an axiom which we must grant as too obvious for dispute, and from which we are to argue. Supposing that he fairly deduced the conclusion, "smoking is therefore desirable," would not the reader turn back, for a second look at the questionable premises here so calmly assumed as beyond question?

In another page he tells at length of the Indian, "healthy as the stroke-oar of a University boat," then of us, and of the poor whites, "who violate the laws of nature every time they take sustenance," and contrasting our habits with those of the Red man, who is "an absolutely unstimulated animal," ends, "this is the only reason I can discover for the wide spread, increasing tendency to smoke." Were this argument to be offered in Court, we fear unsympathetic opposing counsel would remind the jury that our red brother smokes like a steam engine—smokes universally—smokes, man for man, far more than the perverted white!

Mr. PARTON very truly remarks that most physicians under forty, (he might add "and over,") smoke, and then asking if it pays these gentlemen, replies "they know it does not; there is scarcely one of them who does not feel that the practice is wrong, or at least absurd." "None recommend it to other men." "Let who will, deny that smoking is friendly to all that wars upon life, smokers will not question it, unless they are very ignorant," etc.

If you are not a smoker, apply this same denunciation to something you are interested in; suppose, for example, the the question be between Protection and Free Trade, and substitute 'Protection' for 'smoking' and 'Protectionists' for 'smokers' in the foregoing quotation. You will then be in condition, (supposing that you are not a Free Trader,) to judge of the amenities of the disputant; who, as has been conjectured, wrote on, after the cigar was out.

In fact the counter-reasoning to these reasons, could only be: "Non-smokers know their abstinence is absurd." "Not one of them ever recommended his own practice to another." "Not to smoke is to tend to make you think and act like a barbarian."

How much of this sort of thing is necessary to bring conviction to an adversary? Is there any of it in the Atlantic article?

The real question seems to be, whether the use of the pipe and cigar is to be encouraged, but how much of Mr. PARTON's cleverness is not directed at their acknowledged abuses. Have we found one habit, whose devotees have centupled during a half century of such growing public health, that the old rate of increase among some nations, even in Europe, has doubled; and is this; "a habit almost universal," to be the one exception to nature's law—bad both in its use and in its abuse—and which has "no" justification?

The present writer, for his own part, owns that this good gift of kindly nature is not the only gratification of sense which he sometimes misapplies, and sometimes perverts, yet he still hopes to long enjoy its temperate pleasures, and he dissents from Mr. PARTON's idea that in our fierce struggle to "get ahead" in this country, we particularly need further stimulus, or that in the fever of American life this gentle anodyne should be thrown away.

"May the lonely man's companion, the hungry man's food, the wakeful man's sleep, and the chilly man's fire," long cheer our poor old friend the hod carrier, for whose picture Mr. PARTON should be forgiven much that follows, and welcomed back to the smokers' circle when he returns, a repentant wanderer. The King of the Cannibal Islands.

A number of years ago the Feejee Islanders ate up three American sailors. The United States government, it seems, made a demand for indemnity; and one of the two kings of Feejee now sends to the "great father" at Washington an enormous tooth. Is this to be taken as a hint that his Majesty of Feejee would like to "eat and come again?" or is it a testimony that American sailor agrees with the Feejee digestion? The tooth must be regarded as a metaphorical tooth, a dental figure of speech, for it is not a Feejee's tooth, but a sperm whale's tooth. Our government's demand for indemnity might have been met by a gift of teeth, but they should have been the teeth of the luxurious fellows who dined off our seamen. That would have been not only indemnity for the past, but security for the future.

—The Japanese government once horrified an American Commodore with the present of a man's head, by way of indemnity. When Commodore Biddle lay in Jeddo Bay, in the Columbus, in 1846, he attempted to visit one day a Japanese war Junk, but as he clambered over her bulwarks a sentry pushed him back into his gig. The Commodore returned in a rage to his ship, and sent a peremptory demand for an apology and indemnity for the insult. Within a quarter of an hour came back an answer that the sentry had acted without orders, and that his head had been promptly cut off, and was now at the service of the Commodore.

Tonsorial.

There are some things almost barbarous in the treatment of people in some of the shaving and hair-dressing shops. There is no need that a barber should plaster you all over the lips or on the hair, or nearly dislocate your neck, take hold of you by the nose, or pull your lips out of shape when he is shaving you. There is no need that he should make your face burn and tingle with some unpleasant fluid, or spat your cheek with his wet and dirty hands. There is no need that he should deluge your hair with some tonic so that a stream of it runs down your neck, or besmear it with grease, so that it feels soggy, heavy offensive, and so that you dare not touch it with your hands without washing them afterwards. There is no need that he should twitch little tufts of your hair nearly out in frizzing it; nor spend so long a time in placing a few hairs on your temples when he must know they will certainly be disarranged by your hat. There is no need that he should torture you mentally by solicitations to buy oils and invigorators, and by assurances that you have tendencies to dandruff and baldness which can only be checked by them.

Undoubtedly in this country the tonsorial art has been brought to the highest perfection, and there are many who really enjoy a barber's manipulations, when his towel is clean, his lather perfumed and creamy, his touch like the touch of a summer breeze, leaving your cheek soft and fragrant, the rubbing and brushing of your hair either by his hand or by machinery real pleasure, and then you depart feeling clean.

A Sufferer from Dyspepsia

is of all men the most miserable, and how very prevalent is this disease among all classes. The causes of this malady are so numerous that it would require a volume to describe them. The primary cause, however, is a disturbance of the digestive organs, the food, instead of undergoing that chemical change which should fit it for the sustainment of the system, often lies for hours in the same state as when first taken; in this case there is a feeling of an oppressive weight in the stomach, the sleep is disturbed, and the whole body seems utterly exhausted and broken down. Yet this universal and distressing malady is controlled and cured, speedily, safely and surely, by

Truth Stranger than Fiction

NEWARK, Licking Co., Ohio, Aug. 19, 1867.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH—Gentlemen: My wife having received so much benefit from your Bitters I deem it my duty to give testimony in their favor. About one and a half years since she had a very severe attack of Dysentery, or Bloody Flux, which became chronic and continued for the above period of time, baffling the most skillful physicians in the country. We finally became discouraged, and gave up all hope of her recovery, when, by accident, my attention was called to your most valuable Bitters, by Messrs. Collins & Thurston, Druggists, handing me one of your Almanacs. Finding them recommended for Bloody Flux I bought one bottle, and commenced giving according to directions; and before one third of the bottle had been taken she was entirely cured, and enjoys perfectly good health at this time.

Most respectfully yours,
W. D. NEITER.

BRANCHVILLE, Ala., March 11, 1867.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Dear sirs: I am hardly able to express my gratitude for the benefit I have derived from the use of your STOMACH BITTERS. I have been afflicted with Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia for more than five years, from which I suffered no little. My physicians failed to give me permanent relief. I became melancholy and unhappy; my constitution was much broken down by using mercury. Accidentally meeting with one of your Almanacs it induced me to procure a few bottles of your Bitters, which afforded me very great relief; and it is my sincere opinion that they will soon effect a permanent cure. I was pronounced incurable, and my recovery through your Bitters will be little short of a miracle. My neighbors express surprise at seeing me so much improved in health, and look upon my rapid recovery as wonderful.

Gratefully yours,
ROBT. S. NEWTON, P. M.

Chronic Diseases.

The functions of the human body give way, usually one at a time. A disordered liver, or a slight irritation of the bronchial tubes, an obstruction in the skin or of the renal organs, are sure to be followed by pains and aches in various parts, according to the extent of the organic or functional injury. A man afflicted with dyspepsia will soon find more than the stomach at fault. The food that he swallows fails to renew the natural wear and waste, the worn out matter is deposited in some nook or cranny, where it causes irritation or pain, when it ought to be thrown off and carried out of the system. Hundreds and thousands of just such sufferers have been relieved and restored to health and vigor by a few bottles of DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER, which not only imparts tone to the stomach and digestive organs, but likewise enriches the blood with the elementary principles needful to the restoration of the vital energy of the system. Be careful when you ask for it to get DR. KEYSER'S, for that is the kind, and the only kind, that has cured the numberless cases of disordered and broken constitutions. It was that which cured Mr. Boyd. It was that which cured John Tilsill. It was that which cured Margaret McFarland. It was Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher which cured all the old chronic cases which we have published from time to time in these columns. Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher has cured more cases of chronic diseases than any medicine of recent origin. Sold by the gross, dozen, or single bottle, at the Doctor's great medicine store, No. 140 WOOD STREET.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE

The largest daily paper in the State of Pennsylvania, enters the 82nd year of its existence with increased facilities for disseminating the current news of the day, and for rendering good political service in the important Presidential Canvass of 1868. The forthcoming session of Congress promises to prove one of the most important held since the formation of the Government, and the proceedings will be anxiously watched by the intelligent masses. In view of the deep interest centered in the proceedings, the proprietors of the GAZETTE have made arrangements for daily dispatches and letters during the session, from a highly intelligent correspondent, who enjoys the confidence and friendship of the leading members of the Senate and House, the heads of the various Departments, and the leading politicians who frequent Washington, so that readers can depend on receiving the first, fullest and most reliable intelligence from the seat of Government.

The proceedings of the State Legislature, at its forthcoming session, will also prove interesting, inasmuch as many questions of importance will come up for legislation. The GAZETTE will keep at the State Capital, during the entire session, an intelligent and faithful correspondent, who will promptly report the proceedings by mail and telegraph.

It is the only political journal of Pittsburgh which faithfully reflects and steadily advocates the principles held by the Union Republican Party, and interpreted by a loyal Congress.

It gives as much reading matter as any paper sold at twelve dollars per annum, while its price is but eight, being the cheapest as well as the largest newspaper in the Commonwealth.

With the enlargement, every department has been strengthened. The high character of its editorial columns will be maintained, and all questions of public importance will be fearlessly discussed.

The news department will be kept up to the requirements of the day, and in condensed items will faithfully mirror all the transactions worthy of note of the City, State, Country and world at large, and maintain for the GAZETTE the reputation of a live, enterprising and first class family and commercial newspaper.

Ample space has been reserved for market reports, which can at all times be relied upon as correct, as the current quotations for manufactures, farm products, cattle, &c., &c., are daily gathered from actual sales, by faithful and efficient reporters.

The river news is collected with care, and will prove a very interesting feature of the GAZETTE.

The financial news department has been placed in charge of an able and experienced banker, who will render it quite an attractive and useful specialty to bankers, brokers and business men generally.

The religious department will receive the attention due its importance, and will be so conducted as to be pleasing and readable to members of all religious denominations.

The agricultural, art, science, literary, personal and other departments of the paper will be conducted in a manner which will prove satisfactory to the reader.

TERMS OF THE DAILY GAZETTE.

Three Months	$2.00.
Six Months	4.00.
One Year	8.00.

Delivered in Pittsburgh, Allegheny and all the adjacent Boroughs for 15 cents per week, payable to Carriers.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

The WEEKLY GAZETTE has been enlarged to the same size as the Daily, and is now the largest, cheapest and best weekly family newspaper in the State. It should be in the house of every farmer, mechanic and business man. It gives each week forty solid columns of current news by telegraph and mail, the leading editorials of the daily, and a choice selection of literary and scientific items, together with everything important pertaining to the world of politics. Its agricultural columns will be edited in such a manner as to find favor with the farmer and gardener. The market reports of the WEEKLY GAZETTE are by common consent acknowledged to be the standard authority for both buyers and sellers, and in commercial circles in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and Western Virginia are without equal. The files of the GAZETTE are used exclusively by the Civil Courts of Allegheny county, as reference in important issues, to determine the ruling prices in the markets at the time of the business transaction in dispute.

Our Agents will favor us by getting up their clubs at once, and not allowing their present ones to expire, as we are anxious that none of our readers should be deprived of a week's news. Additions to clubs can be made at any time, at yearly rates. Postmasters and Merchants are requested to act as Agents.

TERMS FOR THE WEEKLY GAZETTE.

SAFETY FIRE JACKET,

For Smoke and Hot Air Flues.

HAVING OBTAINED OF THE UNITED STATES letters patent for a SAFETY JACKET, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated, and security desired. A SKATER'S SONG

I.

O in the golden Summer
To climb the hills is rare,
When the cuckoo, blithe new-comer,
Calls through the sultry air.
And pleasant 'tis in Autumn,
All dressed in gray apparel
In search of the grouse to use your nous
With a killing double-barrel.
But there are who deem the Winter tide the rarest of the year,
When the snowdrifts lie and the skaters fly
in their marvellous career.

II.

The racer's joy on the turf is
No greater than we feel
As we cut the icy surface
With the sharp swift keel of steel:
And after breathless skating
Who heeds the elm-log's splinters,
When your spirit high may well defy
The ice of a thousand Winters?
And if the lady of your love is out upon that hour,
O follow her swift over ice, and drift, and speak the words of power!

—It is a peculiarity of American towns that they each, besides a legitimate and recognized name, possess a figurative and often a poetic one, as, for instance, Keokuk, Milwaukee, and Pittsburgh are respectively known as the Gate, the Cream, and the Iron cities. Following in the track of its older sisters, Cheyenne has dubbed itself the "Magic City," which is appropriate.

—The Boston Post is so encouraged at the terrible lashing General Grant has given to Mr. Johnston that it says in its wrath that Washburne and Stanton wrote his letters for him. For our part we can't see how that betters the thing. Stanton has been, if possible, treated in a more disgustingly, rude manner than has Grant, and, therefore, has a better right to thresh the President, whose tongue is often too thick to thresh with.

—The ancients were not intimately acquainted with zoology. We remember that in one of their fables a fox jeers the lioness for bringing forth but one cub, whereas she, the fox, had a whole litter of pups, and the royal beast remarked that that one however was a lion. The moral of this was very pointed, but the statements were not facts. The lioness in the zoological gardens at Dublin has just given birth to six cubs, and four or five is by no means an uncommon number.

It lies immediately opposite Leetsdale station, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, 14 miles from the city, across the Ohio river, with a public ferry just by the premises. House finished in fine style, with marble and iron mantels throughout; speaking trumpet from dining room to kitchen. Fencing and grounds all in first rate order, with plenty of apples, peaches, grapes, currants, gooseberries, flowers, shrubbery, &c. It is in a high state of cultivation, extra-well watered, a good orchard and an abundance of limestone and coal thereon, and is located in the midst of the best farming lands in Westmoreland county, being convenient to churches, schools, mills, &c. Title indisputably good, and will be sold at a very low price.

The Tama county land is all prairie, and the Reynolds county is timber, and supposed to abound in iron ore and other minerals. These lands will be sold low or exchanged for property in the city or neighborhood.

No. 38. Two Lots in the City of Pittsburgh, each 20 by 100 feet, on Warren street, between Bedford and Webster streets, on which is built a one-story frame house of 4 rooms and basement kitchen; a well of good water, a bake-oven, some grapevines, &c., which will be sold low for cash or exchanged for a small farm within 30 to 50 miles of the city, on the line of a railroad.

No. 39. Also, a two-story Brick House, with frame back building, in the borough of McKeesport, on a lot 61 by 140 feet, fronting on Market street and extending back to a 20 foot alley; a fine garden, with fruit trees, shrubbery, &c. The buildings have been lately repaired, painted and papered, and are offered very low and on reasonable terms. Call soon and secure a good home at but little over a yearly rent.

FARM NO. 40. 197 Acres of good Land, in Loyalhanna township, Westmoreland county, Pa., within 1½ miles of the West Pennsylvania Railroad, at Saltsburg. About 160 acres are cleared and in a high state of cultivation, under good fencing, and well watered with never-failing springs; the residue of the tract is covered with a good quality of white oak, walnut and locust timber. The premises are underlaid with coal and limestone, and are improved with a brick dwelling house of four rooms and kitchen, a bank barn 40 by 55 feet, an apple orchard of select fruits, and the usual outbuildings for the convenience of the farm. Title good and terms of payment very liberal.

No. 41. Also, 1 40 acres of excellent Farming Lands in Barton county, Missouri. These lands lie in the south west part of the State, are partly prairie, and partly covered with timber, are very fertile and well adapted to the growth of wheat, corn, tobacco and hemp and for stock raising have no superior in any part of the United States, having a mild climate and short winters.

No. 42. Also, 4020 acres in Dade county, Missouri, to be sold in one body or in parcels to suit purchasers. These are fine, arable lands deep, rich soil, well adapted to the growth of all the cereals and fruits of the north, and in addition to the raising of tobacco, hemp and cotton, they are well watered and have an abundance of timber, and perfect title.

No. 43. Also 150 acres, in two tracts, in Jefferson county, Missouri, in the lead region, near the Mississippi river, a short distance from Rush Tower, and will be sold at a bargain.

No. 44. Also, 279 65 100 acres in Vernon county, Missouri, in two tracts; good farm lands, covered with timber, in a county that is settling up rapidly. For sale cheap, to close out a partnership business.

No. 45. Also, 280 acres of good Land in St. Clair county, Missouri, well timbered, well watered, deep, rich soil, and will be sold at a bargain.

No. 46. Also, 360 acres in Wright county, Missouri, in a highly productive region of country, which is settling up rapidly. These Missouri lands are enhancing in value every year. During the year 1867, no less than 11,000 foreign immigrants selected their NEW HOMES in FREE MISSOURI.

No. 47. Five Thousand Acres, a very valuable estate, in Washington township, Cambria county, Pa., on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, eight miles east of Johnstown, known as the "Sonman Tract;" the improvements are two large mansion houses, finished in the best style, with elegant marble mantles, and all modern improvements, two saw mills, one steam and the other water power; a large store house, shops, twenty tenant houses for workmen, with barns, stables, &c. There are several "clearings" on the property, which, under proper agricultural treatment, yields good crops, and indeed the whole tract is specially adapted to grazing purposes. But the great value of this princely estate is the numerous strata of most excellent, fat, caking bituminous stone coal, large veins of iron ore and fire clay, together with more than 4,000 acres of a heavy growth of ash, cherry, linn, poplar, hemlock walnut and oak timber, for which there is a constant and increasing demand, both east and west, as it can be easily shipped either way by the Pennsylvania Central Railroad, which passes through the premises, for a distance of three miles. Call at the office of G. H. TOWER, No. 164 Fourth St., Pittsburgh, and get a Geological and Mineralogical Report, made by Professor Wm. F. Roberts, in June 1867.

FARM NO. 48. In Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., containing Ninety Acres, lying on the Monongahela river, immediately below Lock No. 2, on which is erected a large brick dwelling house, one log and one frame bank barn, corn crib, wagon shed, brick spring house, granary, work-shop &c. About thirty acres of the same being first quality of river bottom land, the balance limestone soil underlaid with coal, and about twenty acres of limestone. There are two orchards of apple, peach pear and plum trees, in good bearing condition, and also grape vines and other small fruits. The land is well adapted for gardening purposes, being but a short distance from the thriving village of Elizabeth, creating a market at home for all the products. To be sold cheap and on good terms.

Farm No. 49. Containing One Hundred and Twenty three acres in Fairfield Township, Westmoreland county, Pa., about seven miles south of the Pa. R. R. at Bolivar Station, and 66 miles from the city. The improvements are a hewed log house, a new frame barn corn crib wagon shed, and good spring house; about 100 acres cleared and fenced; plenty of limestone; convenient to churches, schools, mills and smith shops. This little farm is offered cheap and on easy terms. Call soon and get a good bargain.

No. 50. A beautifully situated tract of Sixty Acres of very valuable land, under good fencing. Situated in McCandless township, Allegheny county, Pa., on a Township road, seven measured miles from the market house, in Allegheny city. This tract is well adapted for a garden, or dairy farm, being convenient and of easy access to either city, and near enough to the line of the Mahoning Railroad to make it very desirable for country seats for persons doing business in the city.

No. 51. Two hundred acres of improved land in Ringgold county, Iowa, situated one mile west of Mount Ayre, the county seat, in two tracts, one of 160 acres, the other of 40 acres. They both lie on the State Road, leading from Burlington to the Missouri river. On the 160 acre lot, which is in full sight of the town, there is erected a 1½ story frame dwelling house, a large field fenced, and in cultivation; it has rolling prairie, deep rich black soil, with a small stream of running water in the southeast corner of it. The 40 acre lot is ¼ mile west of the 160 acres, and bounded on the north by the aforesaid State Road. Through it Walnut Creek runs diagonally, from northeast to southwest, and on which is a large quantity of good timber. This land is situated in the southwest portion of the State, near the Missouri state line, and has a warm, genial climate, and being near the county town where are churches, schools, stores, &c., makes it very desirable.

No. 52. Also 440 Acres in Guthrie co., Iowa, in township 80 North, Range 31 West, being N. W. ¼ sec. 17—160 acres; N. E. ¼ and N. [illegible] ¼ of N. W. ¼ sec. 13—200 acres; and the E. ½ of S. E. ¼ sec. 7—80 acres, total acres, 440. Arable; tillable land. For sale cheap; or will be exchanged for city property at fair rates.

No. 53. Also the best Farm in Young township, Indiana county, Pa., four miles from Western Pennsylvania Railroad, at Livermore Station, containing 300 acres. 225 acres cleared and under No. 1 fencing, as well as fine farming condition; the balance in good white oak timber. The improvements are 2 two-story frame houses, nearly new, of eight rooms each and finished basements and attics, a large bank barn 50 by 80 feet, a two-story spring house and other necessary out-buildings all in good order; 5 acres of orchard of choice varieties of fruits; 4 feet vein of coal (now open) underlying the whole tract, and limestone in abundance, with plenty of springs of never-failing water. Taken all together—houses, fencing, soil, nice lying surface, public highway, churches, schools, mills, &c.,—I know of no more inviting and desirable tract of land in Western Pennsylvania.

Together with other large amounts of city and suburban property.

The Farms herein offered for sale are cheap and good, and persons visiting them will not fail to appreciate the advantages of investing in them. The low prices at which these lands are offered brings them within the reach of many good practical farmers who, on account of the high prices, cannot purchase farms near the city. Many of the farms are offered at one third less than their value. They are easily accessible by railroad and good public roads. Parties wishing any kind of Real Estate will call on

A GREAT FAMILY CONVENIENCE.

A new and novel arrangement for having attached to the back end of common cook stoves, so that the waste blaze which goes up the stovepipe heats all the water needed in an ordinary sized family, by passing the blaze directly through the boiler, which sits over the pipe hole of the stove. This new arrangement can be put on to any No. 7, 8 or 9 common Cooking Stove, of any manufacture. Any persons having a TRIUMPH, VICTORY, BLACK OAK, BEAUTY or UNION STOVE, or almost any other Cook Stove made in the Union, can have Boilers attached to their Stoves, including the Attachment, the Boiler and Lids, and Bibb Cock, for the moderate cost of SEVEN DOLLARS, by applying to

HOT WATER BOILERS

ORPHANS' COURT SALE.

Splendid Mansion and Grounds.

On TUESDAY, February 25th, 1868, at 1 o'clock P. M., will be sold at auction, by order of Orphans' Court, an outlot on the western border of the Borough of Beaver, containing about TEN ACRES. About one-half is a beautiful grove, the residue well improved and planted with apple and peach trees, and a variety of small fruits and shrubbery. The improvements comprise a fine two story BRICK MANSION HOUSE, with four rooms on each floor, exclusive of kitchen, wash house and large barn. The location is one of the most picturesque and beautiful in Beaver county, commanding a fine view of the Ohio and Beaver rivers and of the several villages that cluster near their confluence. It is also exceedingly eligible with reference to Schools, Churches, Railroad stations, &c. Probably no place now in the market combines so many conveniences and attractions suited to a gentleman that desires for his residence a spot at the same time secluded from the noise and din of business and quickly and easily accessible from Pittsburgh. This property was the homestead of Charles Stone, Esq., late of Beaver. Terms, which will be easy, made known at time of sale.

Persons visiting this Estate will be attended to and all questions answered by Capt. D. H. TONE, Executor of the estate of Charles Stone, residing on adjoining lot. [illegible]

THE COURTS.

United States District Court—Judge McCandless.

SATURDAY, Feb. 8.—William A. Thompson, convicted of robbing the Pittsburgh Postoffice, was called up for sentence. John N. McClowry, Esq., counsel for defendant, presented several witnesses who testified to the fact that they had known the defendant one or two years since, and that he was then industrious and bore a good character. Before passing sentence Judge McCandless referred to the enormity of the offense, and remarked that if the defendant was a novice, he had certainly made rapid progress towards becoming an expert burglar. His Honor also stated that letters had been missed from the Postoffice quite frequently during a period of nearly six months prior to the arrest of the prisoner, and that the matter had been made the subject of most diligent examination by the Postoffice Department. Suspicion, naturally enough, rested, in a measure, upon the employes in the office, but the arrest of the prisoner, and the plan of operations pursued by him, as developed on the trial, had relieved them from the odium and unjust suspicion which attached itself to them. The Court further remarked that the sentence would be severe, but if the defendant had been tried and convicted, as he might have been, for each separate letter stolen, the term of imprisonment might probably have embraced nearly his lifetime. The defendant was then sentenced on the first count of the indictment upon which he was convicted to undergo ten years imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary. On the second count sentence was suspended.

Edward P. Darling, Esq., of Wilkesbarre, was, on motion of Marcus A. Woodward, Esq., duly admitted and qualified to practice at the bar of this Court.

The trial of Michael Thieken, which had occupied the Court for two days, was then resumed.

District Court—Judge Williams.

SATURDAY, February 8.—In the case of J. C. Patterson & Co. vs Allegheny Savings Bank, the jury found for the plaintiffs the sum of $2,671.62½, after allowing the defendants' claim of set off for the non-completion of the banking room and of the entire building at the times the same ought to have been done under the contract—making due allowance for the delay occasioned by the default of the defendants; and they further found that the actual damages sustained by the defendants for the non-completion of said banking-room and building an equivalent to the per diem amount of thirty dollars, stipulated to be paid by the said plaintiffs from the time the said banking-room and building ought to have been finished until the same was finally completed.

SATURDAY, Feb. 8.—The following criminal business was transacted:

James Carson, convicted of seducing Ann E. Graham under promise of marriage was sentenced to pay a fine of five hundred dollars and to undergo fifteen months imprisonment in the Penitentiary. The maximum punishment for the offense is a fine not exceeding $5,000 and imprisonment for a period not longer than three years. The parties reside in Versailles township.

Thomas Scanlon, of Lawrenceville, a man past middle life, convicted of unlawfully cutting officer Thomas W. Noble, was next called for sentence. The circumstances of this case were: The defendant was found in the Ninth ward very much intoxicated and was arrested for disorderly conduct. On Grant street, near Seventh, as the officer alleged, Scanlon desired to go into a saloon to get a drink, but was not permitted, whereupon he used the knife. Scanlon remarked to the Court that he did not recollect of having a knife on the occasion. The Court said it was likely, from his condition, that his memory was defective. Scanlon replied that he had a distinct recollection of the officer demanding five dollars from him. The Court checked the prisoner, remarking the trial had developed the facts. The wound inflicted on the prosecutor did not appear to be of a serious nature; in the language of one of the attending physicians it "did not amount to a row of pins." Owing to the prisoner's age, and the circumstances of the case, a sentence would be pronounced which under a different state of facts might be considered light. Scanlon was a sentenced to pay a fine of one hundred dollars and to undergo three months imprisonment in the county jail.

Thomas Davis was indicted for the seduction of Kate Dennison under promise of marriage, but was allowed to plead guilty of fornication and bastardy. He was sentenced to pay a fine of thirty dollars to the Guardians of the Poor, thirty dollars to the prosecutrix for "lying in" expenses, and five dollars per week for five years for the support of the child—to give security in the sum of $600 for the faithful performance of the requirements of the sentence and to appear at the end of five years to abide the further order of the Court.

Andrew Mathews and Frederick Barr, convicted of assault and battery on oath of James Wiggins, were sentenced to pay a fine of thirty dollars each. The parties had also been indicted for larceny, on oath of the same prosecutor, for appropriating, or attempting to appropriate to their own use articles lost by Mr. W. while sleigh riding. The jury, however, failed to agree upon a verdict, and subsequently a nolle prosequi was entered.

John Neissner, convicted of assault and battery, was sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar and the costs.

Ann Patton, convicted of "lifting" a pair of hose at the store of Macrum & Glyde, was sentenced to twenty days imprisonment. She has been in jail four months.

Thomas Sullivan was called to be sentenced upon an indictment for an assault and battery on Michael Donahue. There were cross-suits, but Donahue was acquitted. The Court thought nothing could be said in commendation of either of the parties. Although Sullivan was badly used, having his throat cut with a razor, according to the Lynch code he had provoked the assault made upon him. The appearance of the prisoner was appropos in the consideration of the case, having a black eye, the result of a recent pugilistic bout, and the "cut of jib" generally was indicative of an aspirations to excel in the fistic arena. He was sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five dollars and to undergo eighty days imprisonment.

Heirs of Joseph Allen to John Stewart, July 13, 1867, lot on the Birmingham road, in Lower St. Clair township, 50 by 148 feet $300

Assault and Battery.—George Bremer made information before Alderman Taylor on Saturday, charging Peter Edinger with assault and battery. The parties were employed at Hussey & Wells' Steel Works in the Ninth ward, where it appears a fight occurred between them. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

—An urchin unconsciously perpetrated a great joke at the expense of his teacher the other day. The lady was announcing to her pupils the holiday on the 22d day of February, and asking them some questions concerning its observance—among others why the birthday of Washington should be celebrated more than that of any one else. "Why," she added, "more than mine? You may tell me," she added to a little fellow eager to explain. "Because," he exclaimed, with great vivacity, "because he never told a lie."

FINANCE AND TRADE

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, February 8, 1868.

A general supposition prevails that the course of gold will be much higher than the present quotations, which may be correct, but is certainly ascribed to causes entirely different from those that are primitive underlying all others. Our staple export hitherto has been cotton. The amount produced last year is very considerable, but prices are about 50 per cent less than what they were a year ago, when large amounts of old cotton went to Europe in addition to the incoming crop. The heavy decline in the value of this article and the actual loss of 25 per cent. on the cost of production, will force planters to hold over and plant but little for this season, thereby hoping to advance the price next fall. Now, with nothing available for export, and what we have Europe cannot pay for, on account of the impoverished condition of the lower classes, we are constrained to let our bonds go to Europe for what they will bring, provided the market will take an unlimited quantity, or we have to part with a large quantity of precious metals. The rise in gold has checked the investment demand for bonds, which are considered at a high premium, even on an easy money market. The approach of spring will open up new channels for industry and cause a demand for capital that has hitherto been idle in bank vaults or been used for stock jobbing purposes. Another cause for lower prices must be sought in the diminished amount of savings of the people in general, in fact the demand for bonds has only come during the last four years from the lower and middle classes who had no better ways of employing their savings than in government bonds, but who are now compelled to part with them.

The stock market reflects the more bouyant feeling pervading business generally. The satisfactory earnings of the railroads during 1867, the improving condition of the finances of the leading companies and the conservative system of management inaugurated upon certain prominent lines are attracting the attention of substantial capitalists to railroad shares. The present condition of the market is owing to the large amount of railroad stocks held by wealthy capitalists who are able to carry their load of stocks over a period of severe monetary stringency; suppose the market attract an investment demand for stocks and encourage speculative purchases.

Mining shares are steadily improving on all the cheap stocks, the old clique stock are no wanted.

—The anti-contraction bill, which has now become a law by the expiration of the ten days allowed the President to approve or disapprove it, prevents the further withdrawal of greenbacks at the option of the Secretary of the Treasury, which is a policy approved by the almost universal demand of the people. It does not authorize any inflation of the currency, which would be extremely mischievious, and would defeat its own purpose, if adopted. The general opinion of this bill is that it will release the business machinery of the country from the pressure of an incubus which since August last has more hindered its free activity and has imparted a more capricious incertitude to its movements than was complained of since the 12th of April, 1866, when the contraction law was first passed.

—Among the various schemes proposed for the redemption of specie payments is one by Mr. O. D. Ashley, which is receiving considerable attention, especially in New York. He would have an act passed by Congress, providing, among other things, the following arrangements:

1. On and after July 1, 1868, the Secretary shall exchange at the rate of one dollar in gold for one dollar and thirty cents in legal tender notes:

On and after Jan. 1, 1869	$1 [illegible]
On and after July 1, 1869	1 [illegible]
On and after July 1, 1870	1 [illegible]
On and after July 1, 1871	1 [illegible]
On and after July 1, 1872	1 [illegible]
On and after July 1, 1873	1 [illegible]
On and after Jan. 1, 1874	1 [illegible]

2. After the passage of this act, all gold coin paid into the Treasury from customs, or from other sources, shall be retained by the Secretary of the Treasury; first, for the payment of interest on the public debt; second, for the redemption of legal tender currency, as above provided, and all authority hitherto given to the Secretary to sell gold coin shall cease from the passage of this act.

3. The legal tender notes exchanged or redeemed under the foregoing provisions, shall not be canceled but retained in the Treasury to be paid out for Government expenditures whenever required, or in exchange for National Bank notes, as hereinafter provided.

4. Legal tender notes of the United States shall be exchanged by the Secretary of the Treasury for National Bank notes, dollar for dollar, whenever presented by the banks issuing said notes, after April 1, 1868, to the extent of the legal tender notes in the Treasury; the Secretary retaining the bonds pledged for the redemption of the said National Bank notes as security for the legal tender notes thus exchanged.

Mr. Ashley's scheme (says the Cincinnati Gazette) is said to be founded on the same principle as Sir Robert Peel's bill for the gradual resumption of specie payments by the Bank of England, and the provisions of his bill are essentially the same in character; but as our National Bank currency is in some respects analogous to country banks, and bankers in Great Britain at that time, and desiring to avoid the evils which resulted from the rigid application of that act, the provisions in regard to the redemption of National Bank currency are introduced to prevent the adoption of this method of resumption from causing commercial distress and derangement of business.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, February 8, 1868.

CRUDE—The Crude market has been remarkably quiet during the past week, the sales, in the aggregate, being unusually light, but prices have undergone no quotable change. Spot oil is held at 7⅛c, with 7 to 7⅛c offered, and March and April at 7¼ to 7⅜c offered, and 8c asked. We can report a sale of 1000 bbls, on spot, at 7⅛c, and 1000 bbls for November at 8⅜c. We are cognizant of 8c having been offered for May during the early part of the week, but there were no sellers below 8½c. It is intimated that there have been some sales during the week which the parties interested for reasons, best known to themselves, declined to report—one broker, informed us that he alone had sold ten thousand barrels, mainly, we presume, for future delivery, on private terms. For all the year, buyer's option, there has not been a single transaction for several weeks—the last one was reported at 11¼c. Oil City telegrams report the market unchanged at $2,35@2,40.

REFINED—The market for bonded oil has been more active during the past two days, the sales yesterday and to-day reaching over ten thousand barrels. The transactions are mainly for future deliveries, showing that the movement is entirely speculative, and there seems to be little or no demand for spot oil. We can report a sale of 500 bbls for May at 24½c; and a "line" of 2000, as follows: 500 for May, at 25c; 500 for June, at 25½c; 500 for July, at 26c; 500 for August, at 26½c; 500 for September, at 27c; 500 for October, at 27½c; 500 for November, at 28c; and 500 for December, at 28½c. Spot oil is dull and nominal at 22@22½c, and all the month, buyer's option, in the absence of sales, may be quoted at 22½@22½c. During the early part of the week there was but little or nothing done, and it was only yesterday and to-day, that we have had sales of any importance to record.

ARRIVALS—The following are the arrivals of oil by the Allegheny Valley Railroad during the week ending to-day:

Stocks and Prices of Barley

Private letters from Albany of New York, state that the receipts of barley at that point for the season of 1866, were 7,400,000 bushels; for 1867, 3,800,000 bushels. The stock in the hands of dealers is one-fourth short of the usual stock at this season of the year. What little barley is now on the market is in the hands of speculators, who are holding at much higher prices. From the same source at Buffalo it is stated that no barley of consequence is held in store for sale, and very little is arriving by rail. The brewers and maltsters are generally short of barley. Large shipments have been made to Pittsburgh. From the same source in Chicago we learn that the stock in that city is 234,000 bushels less than last year. Sample lots are selling at $2,20@2,25 per bush of forty-eight pounds. The prices in St. Louis are $2,60@2,80 per bushel.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, SATURDAY, February 8, 1868.

The general markets have been dull as usual during the past week, the operations in all of the leading commodities being of an unimportant character, the demand, as a general thing, being restricted entirely to supplying immediate wants; in values, there have been some slight fluctuations, but none of sufficient importance to require special mention.

DRIED FRUIT—Under the influence of an improved demand, the market is a shade firmer, though, as yet, there is no change in prices; sales to the trade of 12 bbls Apples at 7c, and 17 bbls Peaches (halves) at 10c; we quote in a retail way at 7@8c for Apples, and 8@10c for Peaches.

New York Dry Goods Market.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, February 8.—The dry goods market was buoyant for staple cottons and the prices of calicoes tended upward. All of Garner & Co's prints were withdrawn from the market and will be ½c higher on Monday morning; Amoskeag 12c, Lowell 11c and Wamsutta 9½c is very probable. Manchester and American prints will be also advanced to 12½c; indeed all prints, except Merrimack and Cocheco, will be advanced, owing to the upward tendency of cloth and cotton. New York mills muslins were very scarce at 26c; in fact the whole market is bare of goods, as the production for months ahead has been taken by shirt manufacturers. In other styles of cotton goods there is no material alteration, the tendency being upward with the stocks generally found. Light woolen goods begin to move freely, but at lower rates. Foreign fabrics were firm but quiet.

RIVER NEWS.

The weather yesterday was exceedingly unpleasant, both over head and under foot, and it rained until about the middle of the afternoon, when it commenced to snow, and as it was considerably colder in the evening, we should not be surprised to find it freezing to-day. The prospects for a resumption of navigation are not as bright as they might be, though we are in hopes that it will not be long before there will be a break-up.

The Mattie Roberts, Charmer and towboats Coal Valley, Coal Hill, Samson, V. F. Wilson, and Fred Wilson are lying up in Kanawha River.

The sinking of the Florence Traber was reported by telegraph the other day. It occurred on Monday night last, on the Arkansas River, below Pine Bluff. She was owned by Captain Geo. Wolf, of Cincinnati, and was insured in Cincinnati offices as follows: For $2500 each in the Central, Union, Ohio Valley, American and Enterprise. She was built at Cincinnati, in 1866, at a cost of $25,000, and her valuation before sinking was $19,000.

Captain Vandegrift, of the Westmoreland, and Mr. Geo. Ghriest, some time since in charge of the office of the New Orleans and Alabama River packet Selma, left Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Thursday.

The reported sale of the Bertha to Captains Russell and Lawrence, of St. Louis, is premature. The parties named have been negotiating for her, but the sale has not been consummated. Twelve thousand dollars is asked for her, instead of ten thousand.

The Dora brought to New Orleans, January 30, 1550 bales cotton—largest trip of the season—from Ouachita.

Four dollars per hundred is paid for freights on the Arkansas from Fort Scott to Little Piney, whereat the merchants are considerably exercised.

Upper Red River is low, but cotton is arriving at New Orleans in considerable quantities. The Ouachita is at a fair stage, and is pouring outs great deal of cotton.

Wm. Hicks, mate on the steamer South Webster, Emma, Sam Gaty, Lizzie Gill, R. E. Lee and other boats, during the past sixteen years, died at St. Louis on Friday.

A Louisville telegram under date of Friday says: The Indiana is all right, and leaves New Orleans to-morrow for Louisville. The damage claims by the late disaster will be decided by arbitration, paying Capt. Cannon, of the Robert E. Lee, $5,000 for his services. 6,000 sks of corn and 300 hhds of tobacco were thrown overboard. The latter was steamed, and valued at $8,000. The corn is valued at about $11,800. Total damage $25,000.

A St. Louis paper of Wednesday says: There was a rumor current on the streets yesterday of an immense gift enterprise in prospect. Among the prizes mentioned was one of our finest New Orleans passenger steamers. We cannot vouch for its truth, but know if the parties named in connection with the enterprise attempt it, they will undoubtedly put it through.

The St. Louis Democrat says: Every body agrees in predicting a clear river to Cairo on or before March 1.

The movement of the ice at St. Louis, on Wednesday evening, crushed the steamer Anna White so badly that she is considered a total loss. Her stern is in eighteen feet water, and her bow on the ice. She was built at Cincinnati, and was formerly the tin clad Forest Rose. The boat was owned by Taylor & White, valued at $15,000 and insured for $6,000, against fire only, in Cincinnati and Covington offices.

One of the most extraordinary freaks of nature recorded in the Mississippi valley occurred recently on a steamboat below St. Louis. A woman on the steamer Adam Jacobs, named Hippenford, emigrating with her husband from Germany, gave birth to four children—two boys and two girls. The family carefully disembarked at its destination, and all were doing well at last accounts.

We have announced the arrival of the Indiana at New Orleans. In reference to her getting aground at Island No. 2, the Vicksburg Times of the 31st has the following, by which it will be seen that Captain Cannon expects to realize heavy salvage from the mishap:

At 4 p. m., the Indiana, released from her dangerous situation, arrived at the wharf. To the casual observer the appeared perfectly straight and in good condition, but in reality she is badly used up. From her officers and those of the Robert E. Lee, which passed about some two hours after the Indiana, we learn that the latter vessel was formerly abandoned by Captain Reub & E. Neal at two o'clock yesterday morning, after having tried all means his skill and experience could suggest to effect her release without success. Informing Captain Cannon of his decision, the latter took charge of the Indiana as an abandoned vessel, and assumed the direction of all subsequent efforts to save her. After removing the entire deckload and a large quantity of freight from her hold, a good head of steam was gotten, and dropping back some twenty feet the Lee took a surge at her. The Indiana moved. Most anything less than a mountain would have done the same thing. By working at her in this way, and using the Indiana's engines to loosen the accumulated sand and mud, with one tremendous effort the desired object was at last accomplished—the boat was saved. Captain Cannon then placed his mate, Captain Tom Heath on, in command of the Indiana, to continue in that capacity until the last mentioned vessel reaches New Orleans.

MEDICAL.

A GREAT
CURE OF ASTHMA.

I feel myself under obligations to you, as well as a duty I owe to others who have been like sufferers with myself, in order that they may know where they can get cured. I had been subject to violent, continued attacks of ASTHMA for more than six years, and had been to great expense and to various medical men of experience without obtaining any permanent relief, relieved at all. I was so bad that I never knew what was to be free from the disease. I had to sit in bed every night for weeks and weeks, without any prospect or hope of cure. My condition was such that I felt like a burthen, and when I got an attack I felt in danger of suffocating every moment. So terrible had been my suffering that my mother says that she has seen me so near suffocation that I was nearly black in the face from the desperate efforts made to get breath. In the cold winter nights, many a night, with the doors and windows of the house thrown wide open, in order to hinder the apparent danger of strangulation. In this condition, on the 11th of October, 1866, having heard of DR. KEYSER'S skill in curing this disease, I called on him, in company with my husband Joseph Meyers, but I must confess, with a great deal of doubt as to effecting a permanent cure. Dr. KEYSER examined me carefully, and my lungs all over, with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that with care I would get well. I persevered with his medicines for over a year, and am today in vigorous health, and TOTALLY FREE FROM THE ASTHMA, and its terribly disagreeable attendants. I have had, once in awhile, a slight attack of the disease, but I regard my health as entirely re-established, and if I do have any attack, a few doses of the Doctor's medicine immediately relieves it. I cannot feel too thankful for the exemption from a disease which used to cost me whole weeks and months of loss of sleep, besides suffering which none but those who are subject to this disease can fully appreciate or describe.
NANCY MEYERS,
MARY MOUNT JOY, (her mother,)
GEORGIANA FISHER.
Birmingham, Dec. 9, 1867.

The case of Mrs. Myers, recited above, is one of more than ordinary importance, because of the violence of the attacks their continued length, and the great prostration of all the vital powers attending the disease. Any one who knew her during the time she was a sufferer from the disease of which she was cured, and will look at her now, the very picture of robust health, cannot but admit that the cure is one of more than ordinary character, inasmuch as we hear of Asthma every day of our lives, being a disease of an incurable nature. Let those who doubt investigate for themselves.

SIGHT RESTORED.
The case to which we alluded some weeks ago, of Christiana Fisher, of Beaver county, is now entirely confirmed by the appearance of Miss Fisher herself, who to-day called on DR. KEYSER in person, to thank him for his kindness and skill in restoring her to ENTIRE AND PERFECT SIGHT. Miss Fisher had been nearly blind for four months. She was so blind that she could not distinguish any object so as to make out what it was. The case is remarkable, as there is hundreds of cases like her's are doomed to never-ending darkness, on the flimsy pretext that there is no cure, and nothing can be done. She was under DR. KEYSER'S treatment for two months, and before she applied to him, through her brother, SIMON P. FISHER, slight hopes were entertained of her ever getting her sight. Her case is well known in the neighborhood where she resides, and has been regarded as one of extraordinary recovery.
We, the undersigned, know of the cure of Miss Fisher, and bear willing testimony to the fact above stated.

The case above referred to was entirely cured by medicines to purify the blood, and it is witnessed by scores of persons who have known Miss Fisher, and have a knowledge of her total restoration to health, and the recovery of her sight, as the accompanying letter of her brother sets forth:

DR. KEYSER—This is the list of names that have to your advertisement of the cure of my sister, Christiana Fisher. They were all willing to put their names down, and were very much astonished to see that you brought her sight so soon. My mother sends her thanks to you; she says "you are one of the greatest men in the world." She says if we had not come across you she believes her child would not be living at this time. We all join in sending our love and respects to you.

PULMONARY CONSUMPTION, RESULTING FROM PLEURISY, CURED.
Statement of George Ford, carpenter, of No. 18 Sampson street, Allegheny City:
I took a violent attack of pleurisy, in May, 1866, which left me with a cough lasting all summer, wearing away my strength and gradually undermining my health. During this attack of pleurisy I had several physicians of the highest reputation in the city. After I had partially recovered from the pleurisy, I was advised to go into the country, which I did, and when there a called in a doctor, who told me my left lung was affected, and that if something were not done soon I would die of CONSUMPTION. I lingered on from this time until about the middle of June, my cough and lung disease gradually growing worse, and I weaker every day, and almost despairing of ever getting well. In this state of despondency, and knowing the general belief of the incurability of consumption, and having heard of cures made by Dr. KEYSER, and seeing his advertisement in the newspapers, I was induced in October last to call on the Doctor at his office, 120 Penn street, and had him examine my lungs with his "LUNG SOUND." He told me the upper lobe of my left lung was very much diseased, but he thought with great care and the perseverance in the use of his medicine, I would get well. At the time I called on Dr. Keyser my pulse was over one hundred and thirty beats in a minute, and I was generally prostrated, and had to cough night and day. I commenced the Doctor's treatment in October, with a feeble, broken constitution, and continued it faithfully until the present time. The Doctor's medicines helped me from the very start, and I could gradually feel myself getting stronger, and my cough and expectoration lessening. I have gained greatly in flesh, and consider myself well; all the rattling of my lung has ceased, and my general health is in every way good. All my relatives and friends know of the advanced stage of my disease and my extraordinary recovery. One of the medicines given me by Dr. Keyser was a medicine called LUNG CURE, which I took in connection with the other treatment.
GEORGE FORD.
PITTSBURGH, March 30, 1867.

ANOTHER CURE OF CONSUMPTION.
STATEMENT OF JOHN G. WIGHAM, OF TURTLE CREEK, ALLEGHENY COUNTY.
I was discharged from the United States army in January, 1866, on account of a wound in the head, from a shell, and a disease which the army physicians pronounced CONSUMPTION. I had a terrible cough and fell away in strength and flesh and was unable to do anything. Shortly after my return from the army, I made application to a physician of my neighborhood and, afterwards, to another in Pittsburgh of high reputation, whose remedies I used faithfully for five months, without any benefit whatever, but rather grew worse, and wasted in flesh and strength every day. In August, 1866, my mother took me to DOCTOR KEYSER, 120 Penn street, whose skill in such cases like mine had been highly spoken of and put myself under his treatment. The Doctor examined my lungs very carefully with his LUNG SOUND, and told me that my left lung was badly diseased at the upper part, but if I was careful he thought he could cure me by following his directions closely, which I did from that day to this. I gradually improved under Dr. Keyser's medicines from the first week I commenced to take them, and my general health has improved and my chest, where it was sunken away, and where it pained me, has become full and strong and free from pain. I can now do a full day's work, and take great pleasure in giving my testimony in favor of Dr. Keyser's treatment and medicines.
